Filmostav in Delhi

1073. SHRI F. M. KHAN: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) the names of the Indian feature films bought by various foreign countries and the foreign feature films bought by India during the recently held Filmotsav in Delhi;

(b) whather the Filmotsav proved to be a successful one; and

(c) whether Government propose to screen the foreign films which got 1st, 2nd and 3rd position on Doordarshan for the benefit of wider audience?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI AJIT PANJA): (a) Details of Indian feature films bought by foreign countries and of foreign films bought by India during the 11th International Film Festival of India held in New Delhi in January, 1987 are given in the enclosed statement. (See below)

(b) Keeping in view the aims of the festival, the 11th International Film Festival of India can be held to be successful.

(c) Only one award was given in each category. Doordarshan would consider telecasting the award-winning films, if offered for telecast by their TV right holders for India, provided these are found suitable for the composite family audience of Doordarshan.

Statement

I. Names of Indian feature films brought by foreign countries during 11th International Film Festival of India

(a) By Bulgaria TV

1. Phatikchand
2. Ghare Baire
3. Paar
4. Admi Aur Aurat
5. Massey Saheb
6. Sonar Kella
7. Sadgati
8. Azadi Ki Ore
9. Griha yuddha
10. Bhumika
11. Trikal
12. Pather Panchali
13. Aparajito
14. Apur Sansar

(b) By Kenya

1. Tarang
2. Debshishu
3. Massey Saheb
4. Naache Mayuri
5. Mirch Masala
6. Tawaif
7. Naam

II. Foreign films bought by India during 11th International Film Festival of India

(a) By National Film Development Corporation

1. Miss Mary
2. The Day of the Rulers
3. Shaker Run
4. The Sacrifice
5. Monalisa
6. The Care Bears Movie
7. The Inquiry
8. Momo
9. The Boy who could Fly
10. Tommy the Tomboy

(b) By Non-Resident Indians

1. The Mission
2. A Chorus Line
3. Runaway Train